Prem Reddy, MD, FACC, FCCP
Prime Healthcare Services
Chairman, President, and CEO

Prem Reddy, MD, FACC, FCCP, is a physician, entrepreneur and philanthropist. Dr. Reddy was born into a family of proud leaders in rural India where he learned the values and guiding principles that led to his remarkable accomplishments and generosity. The focus of Dr. Reddy's work has been to save failing hospitals, turn them into thriving community assets, and give back to the community, gifting hundreds of millions of dollars to causes related to health care and caring for others.

Dr. Reddy is double board-certified in Internal Medicine and Cardiology. During his 25 years of practice, he performed more than 5,000 cardiac procedures, including coronary angiography and angioplasty and permanent pacemaker implantations. Dr. Reddy has been named by Modern Healthcare as one of the "50 Most Influential Physician Executives" in health care nine times, the "25 Top Minority Executives in Healthcare" multiple times, and is consistently listed among the "Top 100 Physician Leaders to Know" and "Top 100 Most Influential People in Healthcare." Dr. Reddy has also been honored locally in California, most recently with the 2017 Bernard Osher Philanthropists of the Year award, recognizing Dr. Reddy and his wife Dr. Venkamma Reddy for their generous support of Victor Valley College and other Southern California community colleges.

In 2001, Dr. Reddy formed Prime Healthcare Services with a mission to save hospitals, improve community healthcare and provide the very best care to patients. Prime Healthcare now owns and operates 45 hospitals in 14 states and is the fifth largest for-profit hospital system in the nation. Among numerous accolades, Prime Healthcare has been recognized as one of the "10 Top Health Systems" and one of the "15 Top Health Systems" in the nation three times. Since 2003, 42 Prime Healthcare hospitals have been recognized among the "100 Top Hospitals" in the nation by IBM Watson Health.

Additionally, Dr. Reddy and his family founded the Dr. Prem Reddy Family Foundation, a nonprofit foundation that has donated millions to charities supporting healthcare and education, including universities and college scholarships; national charities such as Boys and Girls Club; medical equipment for poverty stricken regions around the world; medical missions; and free community clinics. Dr. Reddy also founded the Prime Healthcare Foundation, a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit public charity that owns 15 of the Prime Healthcare hospitals. Combined, the foundations have assets of more than $800 million, all donated by Dr. Reddy and his family. Driven by Dr. Reddy's life-long passion for healing and education, the Foundations act as stewards of private funds to be used for public good and fulfill a commitment to give back to communities. Most recently, Dr. Reddy made a $60 million commitment to found The California University of Science and Medicine, a non-profit medical school located in Southern California that welcomes its first class of students in July 2018. In addition, Dr. Reddy donated $450,000 to the Lenape Valley Foundation in Bucks County, PA in support of mental health care for vulnerable and less fortunate members of the community.

Living up to its motto of "Saving Hospitals. Saving Jobs. Saving Lives," Prime Healthcare has spent nearly $1.1 billion since 2005 on capital improvements to modernize and improve its hospital facilities, and has provided more than $5 billion in charity and uncompensated care since 2010. Led by Dr. Reddy, Prime Healthcare is continuing its promise to provide compassionate care and clinical excellence to patients and families in every community we serve.

Prime Healthcare